

Please do not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since its implementation, phone solicitations have drastically reduced to maybe 1 call per week when on average it was 2-3 times a day. Meal times have become a more pleasant experience and I have not missed talking to the long distance companies or credit card companies. Thank you.